SECTION - A

Reading Comprehension

(Questions 1 - 5): Read the following passage carefully.

In life, every man has twin obligations - obligations to his family, to his parents, to his wife and children; and he has an obligation to his people, his community, his country. In a civil and humane society, each man is able to fulfil those obligations according to his own inclinations and abilities. But in a country like in South Africa, it was almost impossible for a man of my birth and colour to fulfil both of those obligations. In South Africa, a man of colour who attempted to live as a human being was punished and isolated. In South Africa, a man who tried to fulfil his duty to his people was inevitably ripped from his family and his home and was forced to live a life apart, a twilight existence of secrecy and rebellion. I did not in the beginning choose to place my people above my family, but in attempting to serve my people, I found that I was prevented from fulfilling my obligations as a son, a brother, a father, and a husband. (Nelson Mandela Long Walk to Freedom)

Now, answer the following questions.

$5 \times 2 = 10$

1. According to the speaker what are the two obligations of a person in his life?
2. What did the speaker say about the life of a man of colour?
3. In the beginning the speaker gave importance to...
A) family B) people C) career
4. What would happen if a man of colour wanted to live as a human being?
A) punished B) become alone C) A and B

5. Which of the following statements is true according to the passage?

- A) In South Africa, all people could easily fulfil both their family and community obligations.
- B) Men of colour in South Africa faced great difficulty and punishment when trying to fulfil their obligations to their people.
- C) The author always chose to put his family before his people.

(Questions 6 - 10): Read the following stanza carefully.

What is the boy now, who has lost his ball.

What, what is he to do? I saw it go

Merrily bouncing, down the street, and then

Merrily over - there is in the water!

No use to say 'O there are other balls':

An ultimate shaking grief fixes the boy

As he stands rigid, trembling, staring down

All his young days into the harbour where his ball went. (The Ball)

Now, answer the following questions.

$5 \times 1 = 5$

- 6. What happens when he stares at where the ball went?
- 7. How did the ball go?

- 10. How does the boy react to the loss of the ball?
 - A) trembling and staring B) serious and careful C) cheerful and negligible

(Questions 11 - 15): Read the following passage carefully.

I was still a thief when I met Anil. And though only 15, I was an experienced and fairly successful hand. Anil was watching a wrestling match when I approached him. He was about 25- a tall, lean fellow-and he looked easy-going, kind and simple enough for my purpose. I hadn't had much luck of late and thought I might be able to get into the young man's confidence. 'You look a bit of a wrestler yourself,' I said. A little flattery helps in making friends. 'So do you,' he replied, which put me off for a moment because at that time I was rather thin. 'Well,' I said modestly, 'I do wrestle a bit.' 'What's your name?' 'Hari Singh,' I lied. I took a new name every month. That kept me ahead of the police and my former employers. (The Thief's Story)

Choose the appropriate answer from the options given.

$5 \times 1 = 5$

11. Who is Anil?
A) Thief B) Master C) Wrestler
12. How old was the thief?
