My Birthday Present

Hi! Everyone calls me Susmitha but I like to be called 'SUSI'. Now, I am much interested to describe you the best present that I have ever received on my 12th birth anniversary.

A few days before my 12th birth anniversary, I went to my mom and asked what my father would like to present on that day. My mom replied that my father would not be available on that day. Her reply was so upsetting and I was at sea.

That day, I went to school unwillingly thinking of my auspicious day without my dad. The day before, my mom arranged everything I needed. I my younger brother invited all my bosom friends for a small party.

I along with my younger brother woke up early and had our head bath. We three went to a nearby temple to have the blessings of our family God. In the evening, the party started at 5 p.m. and all of my friends were wishing me affectionately.

To my surprise, my dad came suddenly like a monsoon rain and blessed me with his warm wishes. I felt much delighted on seeing him. Then he presented me with a small box. It was simple but interesting, I thought that it was a ring but a 'KEY' of a Lady Bird cycle, which was my fascination. Then my ecstasy knew no bounds. I jumped, screamed and hugged my dad.

Though I had received many gifts like New Dresses, Dairy Milks Chocolates, pen boxes, caps, cakes and imitation gold chains and some sort of jewellery from my friends and relatives, my dad's gift was so special because it was given by my dad, my inspiration.

Me and my 'LadyBird' cycle
