Sri Padmavati Mahila Visvavidyalayam

1. A brief profile

Sri Padmavati Mahila Visvavidyalayam (University for Women) was established in the year 1983 by Sri N.T. Rama Rao, the then Hon'ble Chief Minister of Andhra Pradesh, with the fervent desire to train women learners as better builders of the Nation and to inculcate skills of leadership in all aspects of life. The University was established under the Sri Padmavati Mahila Visvavidyalayam Act of 1983, with a vision of "Emancipation of women through acquisition of knowledge". The University has grown into an institution of academic excellence and has made valuable contribution to the women in the main stream of development. This year the University is offering 60 programmes at the post-graduate and undergraduate level with an excellent component of research.

The campus of Sri Padmavati Mahila Visvavidyalayam is spread out in a lush green area of 138.43 acres. The University is situated at a distance of 3 kms from the railway and bus stations of Tirupati. The campus has the necessary buildings to run its academic programmes and administrative machinery. There are separate buildings for Humanities and Sciences, Administrative building, Central Library, Auditorium, Sericulture Complex, Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences, School of Engineering and Technology, Nursing College, Business Management, Computer Science, Computer Centre and Centre for Distance and Online Education. The campus is also having 9 hostel buildings and the sophisticated guest house.

2. Profile of Centre for Distance Education and Online Education(CDOE)

Sri Padmavati Mahila Visvavidyalayam being the only Women's' University in the Andhra Pradesh state realizes the significance of the need and intends to offer Higher Education Programmes in Distance mode exclusively for women covering the entire state with encherished vision and mission.

Vision:

To empower women as major partners in socio-economic-political and cultural developments of the society with value system through higher education and making them self – reliant.

Mission:

- i) To equip women with necessary knowledge, skills and work ethics coupled with values to develop professionally with high self-esteem and dignity.
