Memorable experience

Last summer, I visited my grandparents' village, and it was a memorable experience. The fresh air, green fields, and cool breeze made me feel happy and relaxed. I enjoyed eating fresh fruits and playing with the animals there. The village people were very kind and shared their stories with me. I will always remember this peaceful and joyful visit.

Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow.

The 'Fool of the Year' game was held every year by the King and the prize was 500 gold coins. Raman won it every year.

One year, he went to a friend's house to borrow some money, but he was accidentally locked inside the room. As a result, he arrived late for the game. By the time he got there, the king was going to choose the winner.

The King asked Raman why he was late.

Raman told the King he needed a hundred gold coins and had been trying to get it.

"If you had participated in the game, you would have 'got more'", said the King. "You're the greatest fool I've ever seen!"

"That means I won the contest!" said Raman.

The King laughed and chose Raman as the winner.
